

eligibility under the statutory provisions listed above. In some cases, the matches will be performed by the Office of Inspector General. In other cases, the matches will be performed by the respective States and the results of the matches will be transmitted to the Office of Inspector General.

E. Inclusive Dates of the Match

The matching programs shall become effective on a date agreed upon by both parties, but no sooner than 40 days after copies of the six agreements, as approved by the Data Integrity Boards of the Department of Labor, are sent to Congress and notice of agreement is sent to the Office of Management and Budget (or later if the Office of Management and Budget objects to some or all of the agreement) or 30 days after publication of this notice in the Federal Register, whichever is later. The matching programs will continue for 18 months from the effective date and may be extended for an additional 12 months thereafter, if certain conditions are met.

F. Security

The personal privacy of individuals identified on the tapes will be protected by strict compliance with the Privacy Act (Pub. L. 93-579). Information from the match will be used only for official purposes, and will not be released to the public.

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 3rd day of February, 1999.

Charles C. Masten,

Inspector General, Department of Labor.
